NASCAR Driver Daniel Dye Visits Children's Home

Enterprise, FL – Daniel Dye, a 20 year old from Deland, Florida, is a NASCAR driver in the Craftsman Truck Series driving the No. 43 truck for GMS Racing. Dye got his start in quarter-midget racing at the nearby New Smyrna Speedway. He recently took time to visit with the youth living on our Enterprise campus. Dye also brought scale model replicas of his NASCAR truck which he autographed for the youth. The residents enjoyed learning about his career and were amazed by his young age, and they were also inspired by his success.

His current initiative, Race to Stop Suicide, attempts to tackle the overwhelming epidemic of mental health issues made more pressing by the isolation of the Covid-19 pandemic. Their mission touches everyone, from school children to the elderly, professionals in all fields, the military, and the entertainment industry. Their initiatives are to create awareness, and provide education as well as resources.
